A WORD FROM OUR CHAIRPERSON

On behalf of The Yardley Harvest Day Committee, I would like to personally welcome you to the 50th Annual Yardley Harvest Day Festival. Our day is filled with premier artists and crafters, as well as delicious foods. Our crafters offer beautiful work across all mediums. Even though it is only September, it is not too early to get a jump on holiday shopping. Be sure to include something for you as well! Don't forget to stop at our non-profit booths. These are local organizations who work tirelessly in the background, who need your support. Yardley Harvest Day truly has something for everyone, young or old. For the kids there is pumpkin painting, face painting, a native American tipi, to name just a few. The Fitzgerald Sommer Field will be filled with live entertainment throughout the day, starting at 10am. We once again have a delicious line-up of food vendors, some past years' favorites, some new to tickle your taste buds. Be sure to visit the food court in the Fitzgerald Sommer Field. Haldeman Lexus of Princeton will also be showcasing some of their newest models in the field, so you want to be sure to stop by and check them out.

Yardley Harvest Day is also a celebration of historic Yardley Borough and it's eclectic assortment of businesses, shops and eateries. This book contains information and offers from local businesses, and blank pages for notes on crafters you do not want to forget!! I also want to thank our sponsors, especially First National Bank & Trust of Newtown, our Headline Sponsor. Their generous support allows Yardley Harvest Day to continue its support to local non-profit organizations with the proceeds from the event.

Enjoy your day with us.
Margaret Bork
Chair, Yardley Harvest Day

The 50th Annual YARDLEY Harvest Day

hosted by The Yardley Business Association

HISTORY

The Yardley Historical Association started sponsoring Harvest Day in the late 60's. The event, which has become a Yardley tradition, was originally held on Canal St., and was combination of crafts and colonial activities, such as candle making.

In the 70's, the Jaycees and the Jaycees Auxiliary became involved and it became a two day festival. Friday nights had rides, games of chance, and a food court. On Saturday, crafters were set up on Canal St., between East Afton and College Ave. A fee was charged for crafters and food vendors to participate in the event.

In the 1980's Harvest Day became a one day event, held on Saturdays. It was during this period local non-profits were allowed to participate free of charge. They set up in the Boro parking lot.

During the 90's, the event expanded to South Main Street in the Borough, and included business participation, in addition to the crafters on Canal St.

Around 2000, Harvest Day was held on S. Main Street only, and included businesses, crafters, food vendors and non-profit organizations.

In 2006, an official Harvest Day Committee was formed, and the event was moved to Buttonwood Park, W. Afton Ave., and Penn Valley Drive. Due to the 2012 construction on W. Afton the event was moved back to E. College Ave. and Canal St.

And so, as it so often does, history does repeat itself.

The 2017 Yardley Harvest Day, the 50th annual celebration of this great tradition will again be held on Canal Street and E. College Avenue, featuring crafters, food vendors, history and entertainment.

The Yardley Harvest Day Committee invites you to be part of history and enjoy this annual Yardley tradition.

HISTORIC YARDLEY

Yardley Borough is located on a pristine section of the Delaware River and is bisected by the Delaware Canal. Idyllic Lake Afton forms the center of town. Yardley's restaurants are located on or near these scenic waterways and are accessible to hikers and bikers. The town provides a great atmosphere for a before or after dinner stroll through its scenic and historic streets.

Bucks County is rich in history and abounds in family activities. A visit to Yardley's eclectic dining establishments could be paired with a trip to Sesame Place near the Oxford Valley Mall or a tour of Washington Crossing Historic Park, just 3 miles up the Delaware River.

Yardley Borough is conveniently located off exit 51 of I-95. The borough has a Septa Regional Rail Train Station serviced by the West Trenton line to and from Philadelphia and surrounding communities. New Jersey Transit's Trenton Train Station is a short drive for visitors from the Princeton or New York City areas.

Yardley was settled by William Yeardley (as the name was then spelled), a Quaker minister seeking religious freedom who emigrated to America from England with his wife, three sons and a servant in July 1682. Before leaving England, he made an agreement with William Penn to purchase a 519-acre tract for ten pounds sterling. He settled on Dolington Road and built a log cabin and later a stone house called "Prospect Farm". The Yardley family occupied the land for more than 150 years. William Yeardley and his family died of smallpox in 1702 and the original house burned down. In 1704, a nephew, Thomas Yeardley, came to America to settle the estate. He never returned to England and by 1710 had established Yardley's first ferry at the foot of what is now Letchworth Avenue (the lower boundary of the early village). It developed into a major river crossing and this area became known as Yardley's Ferry.
